

CALIFORNIA UNINSURED MOTORISTS PROPERTY DAMAGE COVERAGE REJECTION

REJECTION OF UNINSURED MOTORISTS PROPERTY DAMAGE COVERAGE

The California Insurance Code requires an insurer to offer coverage for damage to the insured motor vehicle, to the extent that you are legally entitled to recover, from the owner or operator of the uninsured motor vehicle, caused by an uninsured motor vehicle, that either:

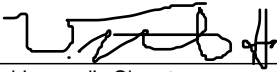

- (1) Pays the collision deductible on the insured motor vehicle (when you have purchased collision coverage), or
- (2) Pays for the damage to the insured motor vehicle (when you have not purchased collision coverage).

Payment does not include damage to personal property or loss of use of a motor vehicle and shall not exceed the smaller of any of the following:

- (A) The amount of the collision deductible, or
- (B) The actual cash value of the loss or damage to the insured motor vehicle, or
- (C) $3,500.

You may reject such coverage completely or reject such coverage when an insured motor vehicle is operated by a natural person or persons designated by name.

I have read and understand the above information, and I have decided not to purchase this coverage.
